Stockholm, April 9.

IT is ſaid the King's Coronation is fixed for the 28th of this Month. Count Sparre who was ſome time ago named by the Queen to be firſt Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, has written a Letter to excuſe his accepting that Employment, by reaſon of his want of Health, and it is thought that Count Taube the Governour of this City, will be ſent in his Room to that Congreſs. Yeſterday Count Cronhielm kiſſed the King's Hand, upon his Majeſty's having been pleaſed to reſtore him again to his Poſt of Preſident in the Chancery, from which he has for ſome time been ſuſpended. On the 1ſt of this Month died Count Niels Gyllenſtierna, eldeſt Field-Marſhal and Senator, and was interred on the 4th Inſtant with more Pomp than has been a long time uſual in this Kingdom. M. Lewenohr, the Daniſh Miniſter, is expecting his laſt Inſtructions from the Court of Copenhagen, for ſettling the Terms of Peace between the two Crowns. Two Letters are ſent to the Czar's Ambaſſadour at Copenhagen, one from the King, the other from the Queen, by which their Majeſties notify to the Czar his Acceſſion to the Throne. Collonel Merks, Aide du Camp, who was ſent ſome Days ago to Petersbourg with the like Letters, is detained about 15 Leagues to the Northward by the Ice. M. Finch, Son of the Earl of Nottingham, having received His Britannick Majeſty's Credentials in the Quality of his Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, is to have Audience of the King next Week.

Leghorn, April 19. This Afternoon arrived a French Bark in four Days from Palermo with Letters of the 15th Inſtant, which adviſe, that the Spaniſh Army commanded by the Marqueſs de Lede in Number about 16000 Men, was come under the Walls of that Town, but that the Gates were kept ſhut againſt them. The Imperial Army commanded by General Mercy in Number about 25000 Men, was advanced within eight Miles of that City, and in full March to beſiege it, which had occaſioned great Confuſion in the Place.

Hague, May 7. The States of the Province of Holland have aſſembled, to conſider of a Propoſition made by the Town of Amſterdam, to ſend M. Goes in the Quality of Ambaſſadour of this State to compliment the new King of Sweden. But in all Likelihood this Propoſition will not have Effect, the States General having already ſent to M. Burmania their Anſwer to the Letter written to them by that King to notify to them his Acceſſion to the Crown, which Anſwer that Miniſter is to deliver to his Majeſty, and to compliment him in the Name of their High Mightineſſes. General Poniatowski is arrived from Poland at Amſterdam, and is daily expected here, being charged with a Commiſſion from the King of Poland to this State, and he is alſo to paſs over to the Court of Great Britain. Count Teſſin ſet out from hence on the 4th Inſtant for London, accompanied by 10 Swediſh Gentmen. It is adviſed from Cleves, that the King of Pruſſia was expected at Wezel about the Middle of this Month.

London, April 30. The following foreign Miniſters have had private Audiences of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

Don Borges Pereyra a Caſtro, Envoy Extraordinary from Portugal;

M. de Wallenrodt, Envoy Extraordinary from Pruſſia, on the 25th Inſtant.

Baron Sparre, Envoy Extraordinary from Sweden, on the 26th.

The Count de Senneterre, Ambaſſadour Extraordinary from France;

M. le Coq, Envoy Extraordinay from Poland, on the 27th.

On the 28th Count le Begue, Envoy Extraordinary from Lorrain;

M. Hopman, Reſident from the Duke of Holſtein;

Sig. Pucci, Secretary from the Grand Duke;

Sig. Riva, Secretary from the Duke of Modena;

The Marqueſs de Cortanſe, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia.

They were introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

General Poſt-Office, London, April 22, 1720.

Whereas the Briſtol Mail, diſpatched from thence on Wedneſday the 20th Inſtant, was this Morning, between Two and Three of the Clock, robbed upon the Road between Slow and Colebrooke, by two Highway-men, who took ſeveral Letters out of the Bath Bag: Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the ſaid Perſons concerned in this Robbery, or either of them, ſo as to have them convicted, ſhall receive a Reward of 100 l. to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Poſt-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highway-men; and if either of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, will diſcover the other in the manner aforeſaid, he ſhall have the ſaid Reward of 100 l. and alſo His Majeſty's Pardon. N. B. One of the Perſons concerned in this Robbery, has a Scar upon his Forehead, juſt above his right Eye, and was mounted on a Bay Horſe; the other was upon a Black Horſe with a Star upon his Forehead, and one white Foot.
